Our Senior Trip

WARBLER HIGH SCHOOL SENIOR CLASS '65
WASHINGTON, D. C. OCTOBER 4, 1965

We left the Nappanee station at 1:45 Sunday afternoon, October 3, and arrived at our destination at 7:25 the next morning after a long, long night on a B & O train. No one seemed to mind, though, and proved it by waiting patiently in line to dress for our debut in Washington, D.C., the world citadel of freedom.

Slightly wide-eyed, sixty Wakarusa students filed off the train, eager to untangle twisted limbs and to satisfy growling stomachs with a hearty breakfast. Appetites satisfied, we were off on a long-awaited tour. From early morning to late afternoon, our guide took us on a fascinating sight-seeing tour of Washington D. C., and the surrounding vicinity. A sobering note was introduced as we visited the Arlington Cemetery and former President John F. Kennedy's grave with its eternal flame. Next on our agenda was a visit to Washington's beautiful home and horseshoe-shaped grounds along the peaceful Potomac River. This was followed by a first-rate tour of the impressive capitol building. The itinerary for the afternoon was a tour of the treasury building, Supreme Court, and the world famous Smithsonian Institute.

Those of us riding the girl's bus enjoyed an added attraction. "Shorty," our fun-loving bus driver turned out to be a real asset because of his knowledge of the history of Washington, D. C.

After checking in the Manger Annapolis hotel and eating supper, we met in the lobby to begin our night tour of Washington. The solemn majesty of the Lincoln and Jefferson memorials was actually enhanced by the lights of night-life. To wind up a busy day of touring, we went through the Archives Building.

On Tuesday morning we began the day with a tour of the F.B.I. building. Our next stop was the striking Washington Monument, followed by a hasty tour of the President's Mansion.

Although we were sorry to leave our nation's capitol, the prospect of visiting glamorous New York was very appealing.

Via the Pennsylvania Railroad, we arrived in the nation's largest city and checked in the Sheraton Atlantic hotel around 6 o'clock Tuesday evening.

High above the noise and confusion of the streets, we viewed a breathtaking panorama of New York City at night from the Empire State Observatory. After a subway ride, we walked around Rockefeller Center Plaza, watched the ice skaters, but merely passed Sak's Fifth Avenue. At Times Square, Broadway becomes the "Great White Way," aglow with hundreds of spectacular electric signs. By 10:30 we were very glad to return to our hotel rooms.

Early Wednesday morning, we met on the first mezzanine floor to await instructions before embarking on a sight-seeing bus for a tour of New York City. The morning slipped by rapidly as we passed through Manhattan Island, Bohemian Greenwich Village, and the Bowery, concluding the morning's tour with a guided visit of the United Nations. As morning waned into afternoon, anticipation mounted as we rode the subway to the fabulous New York World's Fair. Anxious to begin, we were thankful for a suggested plan to follow. With numerous souvenirs, sixty exhausted excursionists were willing to call it a day.

Boarding a Crosstown bus to Circle Line Pier, we began Thursday's expedition with a three-hour cruise around Manhattan Island. From our boat we viewed the most famous lady in the world—the Statue of Liberty. In the afternoon we had our choice of either Radio City Hall and the famous Rocketts or a shopping spree of over three hours. This was the climax to our trip.

With widely mixed feelings, we bade farewell to New York and her myriad attractions for a long, tiresome train ride to our home and families. Fortunately we were a little better prepared for this journey home. Reading material, food, and cards kept most of us more than busy.

Actually our arrival at the Nappanee station Friday, to be greeted by the welcome sight of our parents' smiling faces, was the true climax of our journey. We returned to our parents, a trifle more broad-minded, possible more mature, and inevitably crumpled and travel-weary.
